

APPLICANT CHECKLIST-(OCONUS MERIT PROMOTION)

Use this list when you apply for a civilian job with the Department of the Army to assure yourself your application is complete. We recommend that you print a copy of this checklist and keep it handy for reference while you apply. Sometimes qualified, otherwise eligible jobseekers are eliminated from consideration simply because they did not include a required document with their application.

Be sure to read and follow the instructions carefully, as you may not be asked to provide missing application information. If your application is NOT complete, you may receive an ineligible rating and lose your chance to be considered.

All Department of the Army job applications require:

- A copy of your RESUME showing relevant experience. Your resume may be submitted in any format.

Your resume must include your first and last name, current address, current email address, current phone number, job title, duties and accomplishments. For qualifications determinations your resume must contain hours worked per week and the dates of employment (i.e., month/year to month/year or month/year to present). If your resume does not contain this information, your application will be marked as incomplete and you will not receive consideration for this vacancy. You are encouraged to include your employer's name and address, and your supervisor's name and phone number, as selecting officials frequently check references before scheduling interviews. If you are a Federal Civil Service employment should include your job title, pay plan, series and grade level (e.g. Human Resource Specialist, GS-0201-09).

Note: If you submit more than one copy of your resume, only the most recent version will be reviewed. If your resume includes a photograph or other inappropriate material or content, it will not be used and you may not be considered for this vacancy. For additional information on creating a resume, click here: USAJOBS Resume Builder.

- Your responses to all the questions in the online questionnaire.
- Documentation which proves you are eligible to apply for the vacancy. The "Proof of Eligibility" attachment describes eligibility categories and what document(s) are required as proof. You must meet the requirements of at least one eligibility category, specified in the "Who May Apply" section of the job opportunity announcement, to receive further consideration.

In addition, some jobs also require:

- Transcripts
- Copies of job-related Licenses or Certificates

For additional information, follow this link: Transcripts and Certificates in Job Applications

TRANSCRIPTS AND CERTIFICATES IN JOB APPLICATIONS

Sometimes qualified, otherwise eligible jobseekers are eliminated from consideration simply because they did not include the transcripts need by Human Resources in order to make a qualification determination based on OPM's qualification standards. Human Resource Specialists are not allowed to make assumptions such as, if you have a Master's Degree then you also have a Bachelor's Degree—they have to have a copy of the transcripts to be sure. You may have much more education than is required to meet the minimum qualification requirement (definitely include that information in your resume for the selecting officials), but in most cases an education requirement is satisfied with education earned at a baccalaureate level.

— DOES THIS OCCUPATION REQUIRE A DEGREE OR HAVE A SPECIFIC EDUCATION REQUIREMENT?

If this position has a degree or education requirement you are required to submit a copy of your transcript. If you claim qualifications based on education and/or the position has a positive education requirement and you do not submit a transcript, your education will not be used in making a qualification determination and you may be found “not qualified.” Education must be accredited by an accrediting institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education for it to be credited towards qualifications. Therefore, provide only the transcripts from schools accredited by accrediting institutions recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Check accreditation status at the following website:
<http://www.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/index.html>. All education claimed by applicants will be verified. If selected, you will need to provide an official/sealed transcript prior to appointment.

— ARE YOU TRYING TO QUALIFY FOR THIS JOB BASED ON YOUR EDUCATION ALONE, OR A COMBINATION OF YOUR EDUCATION AND YOUR EXPERIENCE?

You are required to submit a copy of your transcript. If you claim qualifications based on education and/or the position has a positive education requirement and you do not submit a transcript, your education will not be used in making a qualification determination and you may be found “not qualified.” Education must be accredited by an accrediting institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education for it to be considered in qualification determinations.

— IS YOUR QUALIFYING EDUCATION FROM A FOREIGN INSTITUTION?

If your qualifying education was earned at a foreign institution, it must be evaluated for U.S. equivalency in order to be considered for a position. You are required to submit documentation from a private U.S. organization that specializes in the interpretation of foreign education credentials (credentialing evaluation service).

For additional information, follow this link: Foreign Education

— DOES THIS POSITION REQUIRE A JOB-RELATED LICENSE OR A CERTIFICATE?

Please follow the announcement instructions for identifying or including a copy of your license or certificate in your application.

PROOF OF ELIGIBILITY

The job opportunity announcement contains a section titled “Who May Apply” which lists one or more categories of eligibility. Only individuals who meet an eligibility category listed in the “Who May Apply” section will be considered.

Note: These eligibility categories are common to Department of the Army merit promotion vacancies. The job opportunity announcement will identify one, some, or all of these categories for the specific job being recruited.
